Jodie McFadzen Chair 2024/25

Jodie served on the St. Albert & District Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors for two two-year terms as a director, followed by one-year terms as second vice chair, first vice chair, chair, and past chair.

Jodie is the owner of Penzen Limited, a company specializing in the production of architectural, mechanical, and electrical operation and maintenance manuals. In addition, she provides full-service bookkeeping for several businesses in St. Albert and the surrounding areas.

She also owns The UPS Store #65 – St. Albert, which offers a wide range of services, including shipping and packing, mailbox rentals, scanning, shredding, graphic design, and printing. The printing services cover business essentials like business cards, letterhead, envelopes, and brochures, as well as custom items such as event tickets, menus, personalized calendars, posters, banners, golf sleeves, and wedding takeaways.

Jodie's entrepreneurial achievements have been widely recognized. She received the Home Based Business Award of Distinction in 2011 from the St. Albert & District Chamber of Commerce and the Youth Entrepreneur Award in 2012 from the Alberta Chambers of Commerce.

In addition to her business ventures, Jodie is deeply committed to her community. She actively supports numerous charities and organizations, including the Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation, Canadian Orthopaedic Foundation, Edmonton Food Bank, Hope Mission, Kids With Cancer Society, SAMBA, St. Albert Food Bank, Sturgeon Community Hospital Foundation, The Terry Fox Foundation, University Hospital Foundation, and WIN House.

Jodie believes that every business, no matter its size, has a voice in the community. She is proud to be part of the St. Albert & District Chamber of Commerce, which provides strong support to local businesses, ensuring that voice is heard.
